5. Code of Conduct

- Upon selection, athletes are to;
  - A) Act in a manner consistent with the spirit of fair play and responsible conduct.
  - B) Acknowledge, respect and adhere to the authority of the SWDLDF.
  - C) Refrain from the use of any performance-limiting drugs, including, but not limited to, tobacco and alcohol.
  - D) Refrain from using any substance on the World Anti-Doping Code, as enforced by the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) and the Anti-Doping Singapore (ADS).
  - E) Maintain or improve their fitness levels and ensure that competitive performance is maintained at a high standard appropriate for competitions and local and international levels.
  - F) Attend all training camps as required
  - G) Complete sports science tests as required.
  - H) Abide by the policies and rules established by the SWDLDF.
  - I) Abide by the attendance requirement of 90% and other clauses stated in the SWDLDF Athletes' Handbook.
  - J) Respect others, including coaches, competitors, officials and spectators.
  - K) Respect the property of others.
  - L) Refrain from illegal or inappropriate behavior that would deter from a positive image of oneself and the SWDLDF.
  - M) Maintain a positive attitude and act in a way that will bring honor to oneself, the staff, the sport of Wushu, the SWDLDF and Singapore.
  - N) Remember that he/she is an ambassador of the SWDLDF and Singapore.
- Failing to do the above will result in a reassessment of eligibility to remain in the team or to be released from the team.
- If athlete(s) has disciplinary problems or exhibits behavior that may be considered damaging to the image of Team Singapore and the SWDLDF, the Elite Development Committee will decide on the punishment. The athlete(s) may have to take responsibility for the total cost of the event (travel, hospitality and entry fees). There may be further disciplinary actions based on the severity of the incident(s).

- All athletes are not permitted to bring or air personal or performance-related grievances on selection matters to the press/media or on other forms of social media. Athletes should go through the proper channel of appeal if they find that they have been treated unfairly.
- All athletes are responsible to keep all information shared by the SWDLDF in confidence especially with regards to informing the public/media of his/her participation in competitions or games without prior consent from SWDLDF or SNOC.

6. Appeal Process

- Appeal against non-selection must be made in the form of writing with valid and clear reasons for appeal to be submitted to the Chairman of Wushu Sub-Committee and the secretariat within 24 hours after the selection results are released. Written intentions to appeal must be sent to:

Chairman (Wushu Sub-Committee)
Singapore Wushu Dragon & Lion Dance Federation
50 Serangoon Avenue 2 #04-01
Singapore 556129

- The sole ground of appeal is that the selection process was not properly followed.
- A fee of $107.00 (inclusive of GST), payable to Singapore Wushu Dragon & Lion Dance Federation, must be made for any appeal. If the appeal is deemed to be frivolous or unmeritorious by the appeals panel, the deposit will be forfeited.
- There will be an appeal panel to investigate the issues of the appeal.
- The appeal process will NOT be a re-selection process but rather a process to inquire whether the decision was properly made.
- If the selection process is found to be incorrect, it will be referred back to the Selection Committee for a re-selection.
- SWDLDF will, in writing, inform all parties of the Appeal Panel's decision to either uphold or reject the appeal. The decision of the Appeal Panel will be final and no further correspondence will be entertained.

7. Disputes

- Where there is conflict or dispute, SWDLDF reserves the right to interpret this document and to use its sole discretion in the resolving of the matter in conflict or dispute.

Annex A

Singapore National Olympic Council

Selection Criteria

- Athletes who have currently achieved at least 3rd placing e.g. time/distance/score/mark of the 2017 SEA Games. For team sports, they should currently be ranked 3rd among the SEA Games countries.
- Athletes/Teams who miss the qualifying standard marginally, but show potential to equal or surpass it in time for the Games.
- All achievements submitted for consideration should have taken place at NSA sanctioned championships and trials, but NSAs may submit the achievements from overseas championships and meets of athletes studying in overseas tertiary institutions. However, these have to be properly accredited and sanctioned to be accepted.
- All achievements should be achieved from 14 June 2019 up to the Entry by Name deadline, which is determined by the Organising Committee at a later date, likely about 30 to 45 days before the Opening Ceremony of the Games.
